

FATE OF THE FETE THIS YEAR

Along with many famous festivals and sporting events – Glastonbury, Edinburgh Tattoo, Wimbledon, (not sure about Cornbury!) which have been cancelled or postponed very recently the Fete planners have decided to postpone Aynho's Fete in the lovely grounds of Aynhoe Park on 14th June.

(We assess this is well inside the window of what is being discussed widely about the future! )

BUT the good news is – just in case there is improvement and a lifting of restrictions which means we can gather and have fun together again - we have had the generous offer of a new date from Sophie and James Perkins to hold the Fete on Sunday 13th September at 2.30pm. There is a chance then that we will have the fun of a Fete in 2020 after all.

Success in squashing the peak will tell.
