OUR VILLAGE ENTERTAINMENTS

ARMS-Aynho Recorded Music Society - (1st Wednesday) Contact: Bob Mann 810869

ARMS looks forward to welcoming past and new members for the first meeting in October. When we hope to fill the Village Hall with the sound of music.

GARDENING CLUB (2nd Wednesday) Contact Annabel Bellamy 810847 Wednesday 14th July – An Evening Visit to Primrose Gardens, Steeple Aston.

Richard Preston came to talk about his garden in January 2020 - it was a lively and informative talk. The evening visit has now been arranged - so come along and enjoy his garden. This will be a self-drive event (if you are taking your own car and can offer a seat to another member of the Gardening Club that would be wonderful). £5 entrance payable on the door (exact cash only please). This will include tea/coffee and a piece of cake. Please let me know if you will be joining the visit as the owners need to know how many to expect. (Annabel Bellamy 01869 810847) There are steps to get into the property but plenty of space once there.

AYNHO WI (3rd Wednesday) Contacts: Fiona Hodges 369122 & Jill Wightman 811206

So happy to report that we had a wonderful meeting in June, while still complying with all those rules as it was held in a lovely garden on a beautiful day, with the majority of our members present. There was plenty of our usual tea and cakes and our own form of putting and boules but those in charge got just a little frustrated as nobody seemed to grasp the rules! There was much laughter at our misjudged efforts at the games that keeping to any rules was quite difficult, but regardless, a good time was had by all so our thanks to Jennifer for hosting the event.

Our next meeting on July 21st, is a talk by Lis Mann on her life and work entitled "A Thread Running Through". It will be back in the Village Hall 7.30pm but please bring your 'masks' and keep a check on your emails as these rules could change! Till we meet again, keep taking care. Anne Woodley, Committee Member

HISTORY SOCIETY (4th Wednesday)

Our June presentation has been postponed until July 28th.

It is a frustrating wait for our entertaining speaker, Maureen Patterson, to reveal the secrets of the Waddesdon It-girls. 7.30 pm Wed 28th July in the village hall, only £2.

AYNHO WRITERS GROUP

Aynho writers will continue to contribute their submissions online for one more month as a result of the latest extension of lockdowns. This month we had more high-quality and quite moving contributions on reunions and next month we hope to lighten things with "Summertime".

BOWLS CLUB

Unfortunately our proposed meeting of the Bowls Club in June had to be cancelled. We now hope to start the Tuesday afternoon meetings on July 20th. If this has to be postponed again I will let members Contact: Doug Ward on 01869 810723 or email: dougward@hotmail.co.uk know.

AYNHO HEALTH WALKS - Thursday Mornings

All Health Walks are back, starting from the pavilion at 10.00 am. All facilities are available although refreshments and seating inside are limited. Hand sanitisers and face coverings to be used when moving around inside the building.

We are gradually getting back to normal and the exercise, the views and the company are still free! Further details from Kathy White on 01869810418 or kathywhiteaynho@gmail.com

AYNHO ACTIVE are pleased to announce that the Pavilion now has a Brick Built BBQ. A special mention must goes to Steve from Apricot Builders who responded positively to the email requesting help to build the BBQ for the village. He worked hard putting the idea into fruition.

We can't wait to use it at the Post Lockdown Party at the Pavilion on Monday 19th July 2021. Thank you to Helen Parrish for organising the Spring Fayre and raising £80 for Aynho Active. We've been able to buy with the money 4 Tennis Rackets and balls, 2 Basketballs and a children's cricket set. We have also started to tidy up the old boules pitch ready for new sand to be purchased and laid for the Aynho Beach Area.

Finally we are looking to set up an Aynho Active Social Tennis club on a Thursday evening. Please email David.Icke@aynho.org if you're interested.

Adderbury, Deddington and District Photographic Society - still zooming!

We are hoping to meet in person in July, and if so it will be at The Adderbury Institute Hall. You are welcome to join us. Contact: Anne Hunsley www.addphoto.co.uk

THE 'POST LOCKDOWN' FLOWER AND VEGETABLE SHOW

Saturday 21st August

This will be held in the Village Hall. There will be a limited number of classes and the Aynho Gardening Club Committee would like to encourage Gardening Club Members to join in, enter classes and take part in this village event. More information about classes will be published in the August Newsletter, on the website and via email in July. We look forward to your participation.

MARATHON MILES FOR MENTAL HEALTH

Please give Alistair Short a wave if you spot him running around Aynho this summer. Ali is 17 and has lived in Aynho all his life. Ali has challenged himself to run 9 marathon distances in the 9 weeks of his school holiday.

He'll be clocking up the miles each week to raise money for Mind. Having seen someone close to him affected by the pandemic, with lack of opportunity to undertake their normally active lifestyle it brought home to Ali how anyone's mental health can be affected and he decided to use sport to support the vital work charities like Mind undertake. He has run a games competition at his school house BBQ to swell the funds ahead of his running challenge involving many sports from football to table football!

If you would like to support him please do so at his just giving page:

https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/9marathons9weeks or you can put an envelope through our door at 1 Miller's Lane. Lower Aynho Grounds and we will send it in via the page on your behalf.

Ali will be wearing the Mind running vest so should be easy to spot!

Village Party

Sadly, our end of lockdown party has had to be put back to the new 'terminus' date of Monday 19 July. Hopefully we'll be able to go ahead then. We can confirm that the format has not changed at all and if you have requested tickets already, there is no need to do so again

Post - Election 2021

The Parish Council have had a couple of face-to-face meetings since the election; Cllr. Leighton has been voted as Chair and Cllr. James as Vice- Chair. The PC are looking to develop initiatives from the Village Survey and the End of Lockdown Party is due to be rescheduled to Monday 19th July, updates will be on usual emails, social media and posters – keep your eye out.
